Ivoclar Vivadent acquires Kapanu AG

Ivoclar Vivadent AG (Liechtenstein) has acquired the Swiss start-up company Kapanu AG. Both companies intend to work together on the development of innovative dental applications.

Kapanu AG is a start-up and spin-off company of ETH Zurich. The firm was founded in 2015 and consists of a team of scientists and developers who specialize in producing leading-edge software for the dental industry. The two companies will work together to develop innovative dental applications that connect real-life processes with the digital world. Their main objective will be to determine how the usage of “Augmented Reality” can facilitate dental diagnostics, case analysis and treatment therapies.
